SAINT HUBERT CATHOLIC SCHOOL JUNIOR HIGH
HOLDS ANNUAL VALENTINE'S DAY SHOWER
FOR THE PHD BABY CLOSET

Saint Hubert Catholic School Junior High students and staff hosted the annual VALENTINE'S DAY SHOWER FOR THE PHD BABY CLOSET in February. This year's generous donation included 58 packages of diapers, 16 cans of infant formula, 113 jars of baby food, 19 blankets, 22 bottles of shampoo and lotion, 16 pairs of socks, 114 articles of clothing, 10 bibs, 2 crib sheets, 31 packages of baby wipes, 9 bottles, a bath seat, a snugli, a mobile, a photo album, 7 video movies, an assortment of baby accessories and $100 in Babies R Us certificates and $107 in checks and cash. This money will be used for baby food. Patty Branham, PHD Baby Closet Manager, expressed that her staff and volunteers and clients are always amazed at the generosity of the students and staff of Saint Hubert School and that they are so very fortunate to have Saint Hubert School partner with them in their mission to serve families in need in the northwest suburbs.

Saint Hubert Catholic School, serves the Hoffman Estates, Schaumburg, and local area for Preschool, Kindergarten, and Grades First through Eighth and continues REGISTRATION for the upcoming 2010-2011 school year.
